Hoffman, of Mamaroneck. Her husband did not appear, but was represented by his lawyer. The utmost secrecy was observed in the proceedings, and the name of the witness upon whose testimony the application was granted was not di-vulged. The clopement of Miss Mary McNamara, the co-respondent, formerly a school teacher in this city, but now a resident of Fordham, with Clapp, was published several weeks ago. The court granted Mrs. Clapp alimony of $70 per month, $250 counsel fee, and the custody of her three She will live with her father, the Rev. Samuel Taylor, a local Baptist preacher, in Brooklyn Clapp is said to be in New-Jersey, and it is alleged that Miss McNamara is also in that State. It is said on trustworthy authority that Clapp has deeded his interest in his property in Broadway, White Plains, to his children on the condition tht Mrs. Clapp would not press the charge of bigamy against him.

A SUMMER SCHOOL OF GYMNASTICS.

LECTURERS AND THEIR SUBJECTS AT THE HARVARD GYMNASIUM.

Boston, June 13 (Special) .- The department of physi cal training in the Harvard Summer Sci 2 1 is not neg-lected, neither is it to be a place to turn out acrobatic wonders, and haunted by those who intend to make a living by feats of contortion and strength. Among its pupils a large proportion are teachers in seminarie and colleges, some in grammar schools and even kindergartens, doctors, trained nurses and people of that stemp, studying not to accomplish miracles, but to bring what is actually in the body to its highest legitimate use. The course opens this year on June 29, in the Hemenway Gymnasium. It will last five weeks. Almost the whole of each day is occupied. From 9 until 11 o'clock there will be lectures, from 11 to 1 classes in short exercises, and in the afternoon lectures and exercises, attendance pupon which will be somewhat optional. The trophy-room has heretofore been used as a lecture room, but it is expected that it may be necessary to secure larger quarters for the coming class, which promises to reach 100. Dr. Sargent will be in full charge of all divisions.

The lectures and lecturers as at present announced are Dr. Henry P. Bowditch, "Composite Photographs" and "The Growth of Children"; Dr. Clarence J. Blake, "Testing the Hearing"; Dr. Walter Channing, "Influence of Exercise on the Nervous System"; Dr. Thomas Dwight, "Anatomical Peculiarities of the Human Skeleton"; Dr. George W. Fitz, "Elementary Anatomy and Physiology"; Dr. Charles L. Scudder, "Spinal Curvature"; Dr. J. Gardner Smith, "Physical Diagnosis and Exercise as a Therapeutic Agent"; Dr. Myles Standish, "Testing the Sight"; Dr. Duren J. H. Ward, "Anthropology"; Dr. Samuel G. Webber, "Massage and Its Applications." The instructors are Christian Eberhard, B. A. A. German gymnastics; Hartvig Nissen, Boston public school, Swedish gym-nastics; A. E. W. Barker and J. C. Whitehouse, Eugland, general gymnastics; John Robinson, E. A. A. swimming; John Bowler, Hemenway gymnasium, may exercises; Lieutenant Charles A. WILLIAM BROOKFIEFD HOPEFUL.

LOCKING FOR BIG REPUBLICAN VICTORIES THIS FALL. William Brookfield, of the county Committee, was in excellent spirits when a Pribune reporter met him at the Fifth Avenue Hotel the other evening and asked him what in his estimation was the Republican outlook.

he said. "My advices from up the State are bound to score a big victory this fall. I have not cen Republicans so cheerful for a long time. "What officers do you expect to see the Republicans

"Everything in sight. We shall elect the Governor and all the State officers, redeem the Assembly and carry both branches of the Legislature. This is going to be a good year for Republicans I am telling you.

"How about the local situation?" "It is in a good state. Differences, personal and political, are disappearing and we are going to have harmony in the districts where there have been divisions and quarrels in the past. Republicans are all going to vote together this time. When they do they always win."

CAN MR. PAZMER PAY HIS DEBTS ?

WIDELY DIFFERENT VIEWS ABOUT HIS FINAN-CIAL CONDITION.

In July, 1884, Henry Winthrop Gray, receiver of the Sugar Trust, obtained a judgment of $3,760 55 against Charles Palmer, son of Courtlandt Palmer, as the result of a stock transaction. In an examination in supplementary proceedings held at the time, Mr. Palmer succeeded in proving that he was unable to satisfy the judgment. Mr. Gray then placed the case in the hands of Julius Lehmann, the lawyer. Mr. Lehmann succeeded in procuring an order, a short time ago, to show cause why Palmer should not submit to another examination as to his property. The question was argued yesterday before Judge Andrews. Mr. Lehmann declared that Mr. Palmer had inherited a large fortune from his father, that he was in receipt of an annual income of $20,000, that he spent the winters in Florida and the summers in Europe, and that he was the financial backer of Miss Helen Barry, the actress. He declared, therefore that he was able to pay the money.

Mr. Palmer's lawyer denied the statements and affidavits of Mr. Lehmann, and affirmed that there was nothing to prove that his client could satisfy the judgment, and that, in reality, his financial condition was not so good as in 1884. Judge Andrews reserved his decision.

THE VETERAN MUST BE REINSTATED. Judge Bischoff, of the Court of Common Pleas handed down a decision yesterday which is of con siderable interest to ex-soldirs of the war employed the city departments. In 1884 Thornton, a veteran of the late war, received an appointment as laborer in the parks. He continued in the place until December 30, 1890, when he was discharged, as he alleged, "without cause, without a hearing and without any specific charges." He brought suit for reinstatement and was successful. In his decision Judge Bischoff directed the Commissioners of Public Parks to restore Thornthe Commissioner ton to his place.

TROUBLE IN A STORAGE COMPANY. John J. Moore, Maurice J. Power and ex-Judge William H. Kelly purchased a controlling interest in the Knickerbocker Storage Company several months Subsequently ex-Judge Kelly purchased the interest of Mr. Power, while Moore disposed of his interest to James Savage, jr. Several horses and vans-were included in Savage's purchase. Savage alleged that agents of ex-Judge Kelly broke into his stable and took away the vans and horses. He threatened to bring suit for damages against the company.

Ex-Judge Kelly, however, in a suit to recover cer tain property of the company secured an injunction restraining any one from interfering with the company's property. He declared that Moore had injuned the company, and had sold some of the stock to Savage. A motion to continue the injunction was made yesterday. Judge Andrews reserved his decision.
